RE: Public Records Request

Dear Mr. Musgrave:

The Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities ("Department") has received MuckRock News' public records request dated February 26, 2013, seeking records relating to Fung Wah Bus. Your request specifically seeks all Department documents related to the order to Fung Wah Bus to immediately cease passenger service, including vehicle inspection records, violation notices, correspondence with Fung Wah Bus and correspondence with the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration from January 2008 to the date of this response. After a reasonable search, the Department has located the records responsive to your request and such records are enclosed. Please note that the Department maintains inspection records for three years (the present year and two prior years). Additional inspection records may be available at the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration website (www.fmcsa.dot.gov).

The Department is waiving its right to recover the costs of compiling this information. See 950 C.M.R. § 32.06 (record custodian permitted to charge $0.20 per page for photocopying and costs associated with preparation of documents).
